The OBJECTIVE:

for me is now to seek out and explore all I can find on the world wide web, books, movies, audio files, and messages which make my heart desire to be in the presence of God more and more each day.

God is very real and very intentional toward us.
He created us to be creative and to be in a close personal relationship with Him such that the relationship with Him makes all of our relationships more satisfying.

The CHALLENGE:

to develop genuine feelings of affection for even our worst enemies, realizing that if they knew us and we knew them up close and personal, we would actually discover that we would want to be in relationship with them, finding our 1 point of mutual interest and desire which is to love and be loved without reservations or conditions of change.
