

Vol. 3 – Day 27: Sick and Tired of Being Sick and Tired

When you get sick and tired of being sick and tired, of a less than satisfactory experience of God, is the very moment when God is most likely to begin revealing Himself in the most intimate ways! God is always passionately in love with us. He is simply waiting for any who will join with Him in a passionate love affair. Intimacy cannot be achieved by thought or imagination. Intimacy only ever occurs by way of desperate desire to be intimate in any relationship. If you are serious about becoming abandoned to intimacy with God, you will, at times, experience a desire to be with other people who want to pursue the same for themselves. But when complete intimacy with God becomes a reality for you, there will never be a lonely moment for you! God's presence is enough. I speak from personal experience. I have not experienced a single moment of loneliness in over 15 years!

The point is not to fully comprehend God, but to fully enjoy what I do comprehend about Him. — J H Alan

Every experience in your life has the potential to teach you or others some valuable lesson. If you will search for the revelation each trial or difficulty may bring, you will be amazed at how much more God can teach you. Seize each moment (decision point), ponder its meaning with God, discover His purpose in it, and do what His Spirit directs you to do about it. "Seek and you will find." applies to every event in your life. Look for God in each one and you will see Him right there with you in it.

DEEPER Every Day -- John Henry Alan