

Well, as God would have it, Bob stayed in church, but began a transformation by renewing his mind as stated in Romans 12:2. Once having arrived in a place of love, joy and peace in God which exceeded all human imagination, he began to see much fruit of the Spirit in his life. He led many to faith in Jesus and deeper love for God in the ensuing years.

Bob offered editorial assistance to John Henry Alan, “Let’s Fall in Love with God,” and began creating manuscripts of interviews, sermons and other messages which help convey this message of ‘Intimacy with God.’ As Bob now says, “Like most Christians in my circles, I thought that my ‘intensity’ for God was the same as ‘intimacy.’ I also mistook ‘ecstasies’ with God in worship experiences as being ‘intimate’ with Christ. Once I realized that the intensity and ecstasies were self serving and gave me a ‘good feeling’ about myself, I told God I wanted more of Him and less of me.” Hopefully, the letters of Frank Laubach, Conversations and letters of Brother Lawrence and the Oswald Chambers’ devotions in “My Utmost for His Highest” will help you find the greatest joy and satisfaction in Jesus that you have ever known! It is likely that it will stagger your imagination!
